Activity #1:

Provide your group's initial reaction and feedback regarding the goal update just presented by the Vice Presidents.

Activity #2:

Engage in conceptual brainstorming about objectives and strategies that address this goal without reference to what currently exists. Where should we realistically focus to make the greatest impact given our environmental context and available resources?
Activity #3:
Recommend as few as possible high impact objectives and strategies that satisfactorily address this goal. Be succinct and practical. You may consider current objectives and strategies or develop new ones.
