OBJECTIVE: Seeking employment as an Agricultural Science educator.

QUALIFICATIONS

I am confident that my experience as an agricultural producer will enhance my abilities as an educator through knowledge, work ethic, and experience. As a former peanut producer and current cattle producer, I am aware of the skills and abilities required to succeed in the agricultural industry in today's modern world. Combined with my experience and education, I feel I can lead students to success through experiential learning, brain-based activities, and participation in agricultural tasks.
