

Master Course Syllabus Outline

Department: Engineering Technology

Course Prefix/Number: ASCI 3043

Official Course Title: Airport Management

Master Syllabus Approved by Department on: 04 / 21 / 05
Month date year

- I. Catalog Description: The requirements for developing a public airport to include local and state governmental agencies are studied. Federal aid and regulations are examined. Also, the management required for the overall airport operations to include tenant operators, leases, property development for non-aviation use, user taxation for airport operations, planning and policies, organization and administration, maintenance, safety and airport fuels and regulations are covered in the areas studied
- II. Prerequisites: None
- III. Expanded Course Description: The existence of public airports in today's competitive marketplace requires a keen awareness from those who use them. The successful airport in any community is vital for the economic survival of the local business establishments. This course provides the framework for developing a greater understanding of the principles of airport management, operations, and the administration of public airports.
- IV. Intended Student Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to demonstrate through class participation and examinations:
  - A. A thorough understanding of airport management functions, procedures, and responsibilities.
  - B. A comprehension of priorities functions, and services of public airport facilities.
  - C. An increased understanding of FAA requirements for public airport operations.
- V. Unless otherwise stipulated in this master syllabus by the department, the following items are subject to faculty discretion as described in each faculty member's individual course outline/syllabus:
  - a) Course Requirements
  - b) Required Text(s)
  - c) Bibliography
- VI. Academic Honesty: Cheating, plagiarism (submitting another person's materials or ideas as one's own), or doing work for another person who will receive academic credit are all-impermissible. This includes the use of unauthorized books, notebooks, or other sources in order to secure or give help during an examination, the unauthorized copying of examinations, assignments, reports, or term papers, or the presentation of unacknowledged material as if it were the student's own work. Disciplinary action may be taken beyond the academic discipline administered by the faculty member who teaches the course in which the cheating took place.

- VII. Students With Disabilities Policy: It is the policy of Tarleton State University to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and other federal, state, and local laws relative to the provision of disability services. Students with disabilities attending Tarleton State University may contact the Office of Disability Services at (254) 968-9478 to request appropriate accommodation. Furthermore, formal accommodation requests cannot be made until the student has been officially admitted to Tarleton State University.

Department Head Signature/Date:

_____
Signature

_____/_____/_____
Date