UNITED STATES TRANSFER STUDENTS

At the time of application, students who have attempted graduate level credit at an accredited United States institution after graduation with a bachelor degree are considered transfer students. Applicants must be eligible to enroll at all colleges and universities previously attended and submit final official transcripts from each college or university attended. For students who have previously attended Tarleton State University, transfer work and Tarleton work will be combined to determine a cumulative GPA. Transferred developmental and similar non-college credits are not used in determining the GPA needed to be eligible for transfer admission.
