

WORKS IN A COLLECTION OR ANTHOLOGY -- CITATION RULES

Red = rules/notes of special interest*

Citations for a work (essay, short story, poem, etc.) in a collection/compilation /anthology must give information about the work being cited, as well as information about the work that contains it.

The citations contain some or all of the following elements, usually given in the order shown. What to include in a citation depends on the publication's characteristics. See the APA handbook for more details.

- Use double spacing with hanging indent.

➤ Work being cited information:

- Name of work's author (last name, initials) -- For multiple authors, follow names with a comma and ampersand (, &).
 - ~ Additional authors are listed in the same manner (last name, initials).
 - ~ For more than six authors, list the first six and abbreviate the others as et al.
 - ~ Do not put a period after author entries when initials are used. Put a period after group or corporate authors.
 - ~ If there's no author, start entry with the item's title -- follow with a period if more publication information is not needed.
- Year of copyright or year of production for unpublished works -- in parentheses, followed by a period.
 - ~ If no date is available, use n.d. in parentheses, followed by a period.
- Title of the work -- followed by a period.
 - ~ Capitalize the first word of a title, the first word of a subtitle, and all proper nouns.
 - ~ Do not italicize or put quotation marks around the title.

➤ Collection/Compilation/Anthology information:

- Editor's name -- precede name with the word In. Follow name(s) with Ed. or Eds. in parentheses. End with a comma.
 - ~ Do not invert the name(s). Use initials and last name.
 - ~ List names of all editors.
 - ~ For two editors, use the ampersand (&) between the names. Do not separate the names with a comma.
 - ~ For three or more editors, use commas to separate the names. Use the ampersand (&) before the last name.
 - ~ If a large editorial board is listed, you can use the lead editor's name followed by et al.
 - ~ If no editor is given, put the word In before the compilation/anthology title.
- Title of the compilation/anthology (italicized).
 - ~ Capitalize the first word of a title, the first word of a subtitle, and all proper nouns.
- Additional publication information like edition, volume, and report numbers.
 - ~ Put in parentheses with page numbers (see below) – followed by a comma.
 - ~ Use abbreviations for edition numbers (i.e. 2nd ed.) and volume numbers (i.e. Vol. 1).
 - ~ If you use two or more volumes of a multivolume work, cite the total number of volumes (i.e. Vols. 1-20).
- Inclusive page numbers for the work -- enclosed in parentheses. End segment with a period.
 - ~ Precede page number with p. (for works of 1 page or less) or pp. (for works over 1 page long).
- Place of publication -- followed by a colon.
 - ~ Give city and state for US publishers. Use U.S. Postal Service abbreviations for the state.
 - ~ Give city, state/province (if applicable), and country for publishers outside the United States.
 - ~ For well-known cities, do not include the state, province, or country. See the APA handbook for more information.
- Name of publisher -- followed by a period.
 - ~ Shorten publisher's name using rules in the "Publication Information: Nonperiodicals" section of the APA handbook.
