Educational Administration EDAD

Highlights of Graduate Study at Tarleton

All of my courses were taught by helpful and knowledgeable instructors. Everything was great.

I have been working on my degree in Educational Administration with the Principal Certification. I am wanting to complete this and then begin working on my doctorate.

The highlight would be the classroom instruction. The faculty covered real world situations as opposed to just discussing topics from a text. It brought the material to life and gave it greater meaning.

Enjoyed my professors at Waco and felt networking with others from the area was beneficial.

Faculty has a lot of experience and are very knowledgeable of the subject they are teaching. All of my professors have been wonderful!

I have enjoyed the fellowship with other graduate students in my program. All of my professors have prepared me for a career in Educational Administration., have treated me with respect, and have encouraged me throughout my academic career.

Networking

Improvements that could be made to Tarleton's Graduate School

I took most of my classes at the MCC campus in Waco, TX. This was an excellent opportunity and the only thing that could be improved upon would be the number of courses made available on this campus each semester.

I think a few more online courses and courses that meet on Saturday or are half semester courses might make it easier for more people to go back to school.

Offer more programs and classes in Waco.

More classes need to be offered in Fort Worth.

I can only say that I would like to have more courses available to students in Waco.

Wish I had a budgeting class

History HIST

Improvements that could be made to Tarleton's Graduate School

there are not enough graduate classes offered and most of the classes tend to be on the same evening. It would help if more classes were offered or offered online.

Human Resource Management HRMG

Highlights of Graduate Study at Tarleton

Being an International Student, I have faced challenges left, right, and center. Sometimes it was good, other times it was bad. But I appreciate the opportunity to earn my degree here. The quality of the HR courses offered has increased my knowledge base and enhanced my effectiveness in my HR role.

In the online classes, the teachers could try and be more responsive when students make inquiries. Sometimes, they simply don't respond which is frustrating. Also, if a student asks a question and copies it to the whole class, I think the professor should equally respond to the whole class and not only to the individual student who asked the question. The teachers who do this make other students feel isolated and left out. There needs to be positive interaction even though it's online.

(Online Program) Some instructors require that students be online multiple times per week. This was particularly burdensome for students juggling full time careers and family.
