

Master of Science, Management & Leadership

Proposed Curriculum

Proposed Curriculum

Core Classes

- GB 598 - Research Methods
- MGMT 501 - Organizational Behavior
- MGMT 510 - Leadership Development
- MGMT 568 - Org Development and Change
- MGMT 5xx - Human Resource Management (1)
- MGMT 554 - International Management (1)
- MGMT 5xx – Project Management (1)
- (1) May be initially offered as MGMT 585 or 586

The MS in M&L degree is presently under program review for curricula changes. The proposed changes are identified.

Please note that this page is provided for information only and all potential changes to your current degree plan must be reviewed and approved by your advisor. Some currently required courses are being phased out and substitutions will be necessary.

This is a 36 hour program., therefore, students will take 15 hours of graduate level electives.

Foundations of Finance (FIN 500) and/or Foundations of Management (MGMT 500) may be required and can presently be used toward the elective hour credit(s).

NOTE: Comprehensive exams will be taken during the students last semester in the programs and will not be included as part of a capstone course.

Contact your advisor for more information or call (254) 968-9055