Introduction

Membership in student organizations can be an especially enriching aspect of the collegiate experience. Working with others to achieve common goals and developing one's individual potential are important benefits of participation in out-of-class activities.

The Student Organizations Handbook is designed to provide information that is essential in planning and implementing activities. If student leaders need further assistance or have additional questions or concerns, they should contact the Office of Student Activities, located on the first floor of the Thompson Student Center in room 103. Staff members are available to interpret rules and regulations and to provide support for student groups.

If you have any questions after reviewing its content, please contact the Office of Student Activities located in Room #103 of the Thompson Student Center. You may also call 254-968-9256 or email stuact@tarleton.edu.

Students are responsible for knowing and abiding by the policies and information contained in the student organizational handbook. Changes to the handbook may occur at any time in regards to requirements, deadlines and fees. The organizational handbook is a publication of the Tarleton State University Office of Student Activities. Suggestions can be directed to the Director of Student Activities and the Thompson Student Center at stuact@tarleton.edu or 254-968-9256.

Establishing an Organization

Before you begin the process of starting a new organization, review the recognized student organizations list on the Student Activities website http://www.tarleton.edu/STULIFE/studentactivities/index.html then ask yourself these questions:

- Does a recognized organization already exist that addresses your interests? If so, contact Student Activities about getting involved!

- How will you define your organization's purpose? What's unique about your group? What are your organizational goals and how will you accomplish them? Are there at least four other students who share your interest? Would other students be interested in joining your group? Do you know of a full time faculty/staff employee who would advise your group? What type of activities would your group sponsor?

Student Organizations may be officially recognized when formed for purposes that are consistent with the philosophy and goals of Tarleton State University. New organizations are granted recognition by the Director of Student Activities. In order to achieve recognition, organizations must meet the following criteria:

- The organization's purpose must be unique in scope and not duplicate existing organizations.
- A minimum of 5 members are required to begin a new organization. Membership is limited to full time Tarleton students. Tarleton faculty and staff members may participate but not as official members.
- Undergraduate members must maintain a 2.00 GPA. Organizational officers should maintain a 2.25 GPA. Organizations are responsible for enforcing the GPA requirements. The Office of Student Activities can assist in verifying member GPA’s.
- A constitution must be filed with the Office of Student Activities and reviewed every 5 years. Any changes must be filed with the Office of Student Activities immediately.
- The primary advisor must be a full time faculty or staff member who is willing to ensure the organization is complying with university rules and regulations.
- The organization must update the group’s information each fall and spring semester. Log into www.OrgSync.com with your NTNET and password (call help desk at 254-968-9885 if you do not know your log in information) go to your group’s profile and under >Profile select the >Edit button, complete the information even if nothing has changed, and submit the profile for review. If you do not have Admin privileges, contact our office at 254-968-9256.
- If your organization is new, select >Register New Organization and complete /submit the profile information.
- The organization must file for a Tax I.D. Number. This number does not grant tax exemption status it is only an identification number. The Office of Student Activities can assist with this process.

  - The organization must agree to conduct its affairs in accordance with University rules and regulations as well as federal and Texas state law.

Tarleton has approximately 120 recognized student organizations. Each organization is categorized into one of the following areas:

  - Club Sports Organizations affiliated with Recreational Sports that promote particular athletic interests.
  - Departmental Organizations related to a particular academic area or field of study.
  - Greek Fraternities and Sororities Nationally affiliated societies and organizations for men and women.
  - Honorary Organizations that represent students with high academic standards either by classification or by special areas of study. Some groups are nationally based while others are based locally.
  - Music Organizations dedicated to the encouragement of the performing arts, particularly music.
  - Professional Organizations formed to promote a particular interest in a student’s professional future career. Most of the professional organizations are nationally based.
  - Religious Organizations that exist to provide religious and social outlets for students.
  - Service/Social Organizations or groups organized (either locally or nationally) to render service to the campus and the Stephenville community and who promote social activities for interested students.
  - Special Interest Organizations created to support special areas not associated with any academic department.
  - Spirit Organizations dedicated to the encouragement of spirit and support of Tarleton Athletics.
  - Student Life Organizations that operate under the umbrella of the Division of Student Life with programs benefiting the entire campus.

Through this variety of organizations, most students find an opportunity to become involved and contribute to campus life at Tarleton State University. However, if you have a special interest and an existing organization doesn’t meet your needs, you may apply to start your own recognized student organization.

Risk Management Training

As outlined in House Bill 2639, institutions of higher education are required to provide a risk management program for members and advisors of student organizations registered at the institutions.

House Bill 2639 states every university must:

1. Provide the risk management program at least once each academic year for registered student organizations
2. Identify which organizations/advisors should be required to attend the program and develop an institutional rule that reflects these requirements
3. Develop an online version of the program for off-campus advisors
4. Designate which officer positions (president, membership chair, risk management chair, social chair, etc) will be required to attend
5. Require the officer/advisor who attends the program to report the contents of the program to the full membership of the organization
6. Require the program to address: possession and use of alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs, including penalties; hazing; sexual abuse and harassment; fire and other safety issues including firearms; other weapons or explosive devices; travel to a destination outside the area in which institution is located; behavior at parties and other events held by student organizations; adoption by a student organization of a risk management policy
7. Require the institution to take attendance, keep record of attendance and impose reasonable sanctions for those persons who do not comply

Tarleton’s policy requires at least two officers of the recognized student organization to attend the training. One of the officers must be the risk management officer. Every organization must have a risk management officer. This duty could be assigned to an existing office or a new officer position could be developed. Once trained, the officers must train the entire organizational membership. Organizational officers will attend this training annually.

All organizational advisors are required to attend the training as well. This is a one-time training for advisors unless changes in laws or training warrant additional training. You do not have to attend the same training as your advisor but it is recommended.

Once trained, the officers/advisors must communicate the information with the entire organizational membership.

For more information about risk management training visit the Student Activities website, http://www.tarleton.edu/STULIFE/studentactivities/index.html, to review Risk Management dates.

Staying Recognized

At the beginning of each fall and spring semester, the group must update and submit their profile for review in OrgSync for an organization to keep recognition status.

- Log into www.OrgSync.com with your NTNET and password (call help desk at 254-968-9885 if you do not know your log in information) go to your group’s profile and under >Profile select the >Edit button, complete the information even if nothing has changed, and submit the profile for review. If you do not have Admin privileges, contact our office at 254-968-9256.

Updated Constitutions and bylaws should be re-filed with the Office of Student Activities immediately.

Attend required training’s as directed by the Office of Student Activities

Note: When a conflict between university policy and a student organization’s constitution and bylaws arises, university policy and procedures will supersede the respective organizations constitution and bylaws to alleviate and/or resolve any discrepancies and/or conflict.

Advisors

University regulation requires each student organization have a faculty/staff member (full time employee of Tarleton State University) as the primary advisor for the organization. It is in the organization’s best interest to have a secondary advisor in case the primary advisor is unavailable.

An advisor can provide the following support to an organization since this person plays an important role in the success of the group.

- Provide the organization with historical information about the group.
- Enforce university policies and procedures as they relate to student organizations Advise the group on liability issues (i.e. alcohol, hazing, etc.).
- Encourage members to make reasonable and prudent decisions when planning activities.
- Attend organizational meetings whenever possible.
- Provide information about the responsibilities associated with good leadership and fellowship.
- Introduce new ideas.
- Attend activities, sponsored by the group, classified as "open" or involving alcohol from beginning to end

Recruiting an Advisor

Find someone who has time to devote to the organization and who will take the role willingly and seriously.

Make sure the potential advisor has a clear understanding of the organization’s purpose. It is important to outline his/her duties and the time the position would require. If possible choose someone who shares the same interests of your organization.

Allow the person time to consider the offer. This person will be very important to your organization and he/she should not be pressured into taking the position.

Organizational Finances

Student organizations are responsible for their own finances. The university is not responsible for any debt incurred by your organization. Since banking services are not available on campus, your organization is responsible for selecting a bank. We recommend the following:

Consider banking at a local institution, it is more accessible for conducting transactions
File for a Tax I.D. Number through the Office of Student Activities
Have two (2) people on the account signature card. This will help prevent misappropriation of funds (consider your advisor as one of the signatories).

Have financial statements sent to an address that will be used semester to semester and one that is checked frequently. You will be able to detect problems much quicker especially when officers change or when members are gone for the summer.

Be responsible in your spending habits. Poor financial management could affect your organization for years to come.

Tarleton State University assumes no responsibility for debt incurred by student organizations.

SGA Organizational Representatives
As a recognized student organization you have the opportunity to provide two (2) representatives to the Student Government Association House of Representatives. Representatives are internally elected by the organization and serve the fall and spring semesters in the Student Government Association. The House is responsible for initiating, reviewing and adopting new legislation as well as allocating funds for student organizations. For more information about the House of Representatives, call the Student Government Association at 968-9082 or email sga@tarleton.edu.

House of Representatives Funding
The House of Representatives is a legislative body composed of internally selected representative from each of the recognized student organizations on campus.

Representation is optional for the organizations; however, in order to be eligible for funding, a representative must regularly attend meetings. All recognized organizations have equal representation however, not all organizations are eligible for funding. The House of Representatives will provide a list of organizations that are eligible for funding at the beginning of each semester.

The purpose of the House is to:
- Initiate, review and adopt legislation
- Allocate funds to organizations
- Encourage and promote student participation in activities of the University
- Promote growth and development of student organizations
- Promote community service

If your organization is interested in joining the House of Representatives, please contact the Student Government Association at 968-9082.

Activity permits are available online at www.tarleton.edu/studentactivities. Print the permit, complete, obtain the required signatures and return to the Office of Student Activities, TSC #103 for approval. An event is approved when the activity permit is signed by the Director of Student Activities and Thompson Student Center. Activity permits are required five (5) days prior to the event. General Events / Activities Policy

The following guidelines will help you when planning activities. These policies should be followed when planning events on or off campus.

Each student organization will provide the Office of Student Activities a complete list of its officers, their addresses and phone numbers. This will be done by filing an update form online at the beginning of each fall and spring semester or when changes occur.

An activity permit is required for any event, meeting or activity that any recognized student organization is sponsoring. This applies to events held on and off campus.

The time and place of organizational meetings must be approved a minimum of five (5) days prior to the event by the Office of Student Activities through the approval of an activity permit. Activity permits are available online, in the Student Activities office, or the O-Zone. The permit requires the signatures of the requestor, organization's faculty or staff advisor, the individual responsible for the room reservation (Thompson Student Center, Registrar, Student Activities, etc.) and the Director of Student Activities.

Any student organization sponsoring a fundraising event (on-campus or off-campus) must obtain prior approval from the organization's advisor and the Director of Student Activities through the approval of an activity permit.

Meetings, activities, events, social affairs, programs or athletic contests may not be held during the final examination period or restricted activity period. The "restricted activity" period is approximately one week prior to finals. The dates of the "restricted activity period" are printed annually in the university catalog. Exceptions may be granted by the appropriate Vice President.

Intoxicants will not be tolerated at university functions held on the campus of Tarleton State University. Violation of this policy will be sufficient reason for immediate stopping of the social activity in question and suspension of the students participating. Each club or organization is responsible for enforcing this regulation at their own events.

Individual organizations will be held responsible for property damage in any university facility they use.

Activities will end no later than midnight Sunday through Thursday, unless special approval has been obtained from the Office of Student Activities.

Due to the increased concern regarding the liability and safety of students and student organizations at Tarleton State University, the Office of Student Activities requires a written activity proposal accompanying the activity permit for any event classified as "open" or including alcoholic beverages. A risk management matrix may also be required. An outline for this proposal and a risk management matrix can be obtained from the Office of Student Activities or online at www.tarleton.edu/studentactivities.

Attendance at all organizational activities is limited to currently enrolled Tarleton students and their guests. An activity proposal must accompany the activity permit for approval to host outside guests.

Failure to comply with any and all university regulations may result in disciplinary action. Approval of activity permits or activity proposals will be granted to recognized student organizations maintaining an active status.

This criteria for maintaining active status includes:

Organizations shall file an update form, by the deadline established by the Office of Student Activities, at the beginning of each long semester. It is the responsibility of the organizational president to submit the necessary documents within three (3) weeks of the first day of classes. Failure to do so will result in the organization being placed on probationary status.

Organizations shall demonstrate, by their actions, that they are working to achieve their purposes as outlined by their statement of purpose, constitution and by-laws.
Organizations shall remain in good standing with the university and shall conduct affairs in a lawful manner in accordance with university policies, state, local and federal laws.

Recognition of an organization may be withdrawn by the Director of Student Activities for non-compliance with rules set forth in the student handbook, organizational handbook and the code of student conduct. Appeals of the revocation of recognition will be made through the Dean of Student Life. All appeals must be made in writing and must be submitted within five days of the date of the revocation letter.

Hazing

Hazing is against the laws of Tarleton State University and the State of Texas. The Office of Student Activities will enforce all legislation, laws, and regulations pertaining to this issue.

The Texas Legislature enacted a law prohibiting hazing by a person(s) against a student(s) at an educational institution. The law also prohibits the knowing, intentional or reckless failure to report hazing to university authorities. Failure to comply with the specific provisions of the law will result in criminal penalties and fines. A copy of the law, in its entirety, is available from the Office of Student Life or from the Office of Student Activities.

"Hazing" means any intentional, or reckless act, occurring on or off the campus of an educational institution, by one person alone or acting with others, directed against a student, that endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student for the purpose of pledging, being initiated into, affiliating with, holding office in, or maintaining membership in any organization whose members are or include students at an educational institution.

"Hazing" includes, but is not limited to, any type of physical brutality or physical activity, that subjects the student to unreasonable risk or harm or that adversely affects the mental or physical health or safety of the student. (i.e. sleep deprivation, exposure to the elements, calisthenics); activity involving consumption of a food, liquid, alcoholic beverage, liquor, drug, or other substance which subjects the student to an unreasonable risk of harm or which adversely affect the mental or physical health or safety of the student; activity that intimidates or threatens the student with ostracism, that subjects the student to extreme mental stress, shame or humiliation, or that adversely affects the mental health or dignity of the student.

The aforementioned activities are examples of specific hazing offenses only. Any type of activity, which falls within the general definition of hazing, is prohibited under the hazing law. Consent of the individual subjected to the hazing is not a defense to prosecution of an offense under the hazing law. Organizations which are covered under this law include a fraternity, sorority, association, corporation, order, society, chorus, cooperative, corps, club or service, social, or similar group, whose members are primarily students at an educational institution. A "student" includes an individual accepted for admission at an educational institution or an individual who is on vacation from an educational institution and intends to attend that institution during any of its regular sessions after that period of scheduled vacation.

Specific criminal penalties which may be imposed against an individual or organization guilty of an offense under the hazing law include the imposition of fines ranging from $5,000-$10,000 and/or confinement in the county jail for a period of time ranging from 90 days-two years. The specific penalty imposed for a hazing offense depends on the seriousness of the offense and whether or not bodily injury or death to an individual resulted from the hazing incident.

Brief Summary

A person commits an offense under the hazing law if that person:

- Engages in hazing
- Solicits, encourages, directs, aids or attempts to aid another person in engaging in hazing
- Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly permits hazing to occur; or has firsthand knowledge of the planning of a specific hazing incident involving a student in an educational institution or firsthand knowledge that a specific hazing incident has occurred, and knowingly fails to report said knowledge in writing to the Office of Student Life or other appropriate officials of the institution

Risk Management
Risk Management is the process of considering the potential and perceived risk involved in student activities. It includes monitoring organization activities and taking both corrective action and proactive steps to minimize accidental injury and/or loss.

Several types of risk exist that could impact your group:

- Physical—Physical risks can include things such as food poisoning, injuries that may result from physical activities, injuries that may result from travel related accidents.
- Reputation—Reputational risks are those things that may result in negative publicity for your organization, TSU, your advisor and/or the venue where you are holding event.
- Emotional—Emotional risks are those things that can cause a participant at your event to feel alienated or negatively impact the feelings of a member or members of the TSU community.
- Financial—Financial risks are those things that negatively impact the fiscal stability of your organization and/or other organizations financially supporting your event.
- Facilities—Facility risks are those things that may cause property damage, prevent your event from being held (bad weather, not enough space for the number of participants, lack of equipment or materials needed for the event).

Risk must be managed at every event/activity planned, hosted, and promoted by your group. For each event you should identify risky behavior, eliminate or reduce the risk and reassess the activity after the risks have been managed. To do this, the university has created a Risk Management Matrix to help you identify risk and develop responses. This matrix should be completed for every event that is either open to the public or involves alcohol. The matrix may also be required of other events that involve potential risk.

For more information on risk management, visit www.tarleton.edu/studentactivities and select the risk management tab or stop by the Office of Student Activities, Thompson Student Center Room 103.

Liability Waivers

Since there are certain inherent dangers associated with some activities, it may be necessary to have participants sign waivers. Waivers should inform participants about dangers associated with the activity including who is responsible for accidents.

Most waivers state that the participant is responsible for any accidents. A waiver does not excuse your responsibility. It is a tool to inform participants about dangers.

Safety at activities is of the utmost importance. You must take every precaution to sponsor safe activities. No matter how safe you plan your activity, accidents are going to happen. It is very important to have a plan of action. Know ahead of time who to call for help. Have easy access to a phone and have the numbers handy.

Most importantly use good judgment. If you don't think anyone at the accident is capable of handling the situation, call for help. Remember, you are responsible for the activity.

All accidents/incidents should be reported to the Office of Student Activities.

The Office of Student Activities can help you write a waiver for any activity. Please contact us if you need help.

Alcohol/Open Events

Alcohol at an event can be a major cause of problems for the sponsoring organization. It is much safer to organize alcohol-free events. In almost every case, alcohol can be difficult to supervise and may put student leaders in a situation over which they are responsible but have little or no control. While it is not our policy to encourage allowing alcohol at social gatherings, we want to encourage those who drink to do it responsibly.

Tarleton State University is an alcohol and drug free campus; therefore, it is illegal for any student and/or their guest to possess and/or consume alcohol or illegal drugs on campus at any time.

The university expects students to abide by the laws of the state and local community. The use of alcohol in public areas, academic buildings, residence halls, courtyards, and parking lots is not permitted.
All social gatherings involving alcoholic beverages must be held off campus. Since the minimum drinking age is twenty-one (21), many students will not be of legal age who may be in attendance. It is important to plan events where alcohol is not the primary focus and where food and non-alcoholic beverages are available.

As a recognized student organization, you are expected to take appropriate measures to assure that minors and intoxicated individuals are not consuming alcohol at these events. Organizational leaders and the advisor are responsible for the conduct of the organizations' members and guests. Appropriate safeguards against abusive drinking and conduct should be taken.

Approval of Activities Involving Alcohol

Due to increased concerns with liability and the safety of students, the Office of Student Activities will require a written activity or formal proposal accompanying the activity permit for any event involving alcohol or classified as "open". "Open" is defined as open to the public, an event that anyone may attend regardless of student status. Events involving alcoholic beverages will require a security services agreement in addition to the activity permit and activity proposal.

The Risk Management Matrix must be completed and submitted to the Office of Student Activities with the activity permit and activity proposal. This matrix will help you identify potential risk and will guide you to make appropriate changes to your event to address the risk.

Nationally affiliated organizations must submit a copy of their risk management policy. This policy will be reviewed and all requirements must be met prior to the event.

Activities, publicity, and ticket sales will not be approved until all appropriate paper work has been submitted, reviewed and stipulations therein have been met. These documents must be submitted at least (five) 5 days prior to the event.

At BYOB events, the following requirements must be met:

- Police Officers sanctioned by the State of Texas must be employed as security at any event classified as "open" or involving alcoholic beverages. These officers are responsible for enforcing the legal limits as prescribed by the Texas Alcohol and Beverage Commission as well as checking identification, etc. The security services agreement must be completed outlining the officers' responsibilities.
- The number of officers required for an event will be determined by the Director of Student Activities in cooperation with the agency supplying officers. The fee required for each officer will be determined by the agency.
- To be eligible to drink alcoholic beverages at the event, the person must be of legal drinking age and must be stamped on the hand with the appropriate ink stamp or wear a wrist band. Underage participants must also be identified by some means.
- Alcohol may be consumed for a maximum of three (3) hours at any one event and consumption must end thirty minutes prior to the end of the event. Exceptions to length of event may be granted by the Director of Student Activities.
- No glass containers, kegs, party balls, or hard liquor is allowed at BYOB events. All beverages must be in the original containers. No cups will be allowed into the venue.
- A designated driver program must be in place to safely transport anyone unable to drive. Information about this program must be posted in a prominent place at the event. All drivers must complete the university's driver safety training program. Tarleton Alternative Transportation is available on a limited basis to provide safe transport.
- A non-alcoholic beverage (water and other beverages) must be available and displayed throughout the time frame of the event.
- Food must be available (free of charge) throughout the time frame of the event. (i.e. popcorn, cookies).
- No alcohol should be consumed by any person who appears to be intoxicated to the degree that he/she may endanger himself/herself or another.
- No alcoholic beverages are allowed in any university facilities, on the campus, or on any university owned property.
- No drinking games are allowed.
- Members of the sponsoring organization will not consume alcohol before or during the event.
- The organization's advisor or approved representative must be present at the activity from beginning to end.
- Nationally affiliated organizations may be required to adhere to additional policies as outlined in their risk management policy.
- Nationally affiliated Greek social organizations must work through the Coordinator of Leadership Programs on events that involve alcohol.
Pre-event Planning

- All activities that are sponsored by a recognized student organization must have the approval of the faculty/staff advisor.
- The organization should take the necessary precautions to ensure that consumption of alcohol doesn't detrimentally affect the health and well-being of those who attend the event. Include methods for preventing minors and intoxicated participants from drinking.
- Promote party themes instead of alcohol.
- Make arrangements with law enforcement personnel and discuss specific job duties.
- Designate, before the event, how ID's will be checked.
- Utilize ways of preventing consumption of alcohol by minors by using an identification system distinguishing over twenty-one (21) guests from minors.
- Work closely with your advisor to comply with established risk management policies.
- Coordinate a plan for a designated driver program to safely transport anyone unable to drive.

During the Event

- Recognize and respect guests' rights not to drink.
- Encourage responsible drinking behaviors.
- Make sure you have plenty of food and non-alcoholic beverages. Consumption of food slows down the body's absorption of alcohol into the blood stream. Avoid serving only salty snacks.
- Work closely with law enforcement personnel to enforce appropriate laws and troubleshoot any problems.
- Prevent anyone who is under the influence from driving by utilizing designated drivers.
- Provide incentives for designated drivers to remain sober by supplying special party favors, free food, coupons, or other treats.
- At events where alcohol is being served by a vendor, many of the same policies apply. The formal proposal speaks to the specific information that will need to be supplied about the activity.
- If you need assistance in writing an activity proposal or formal proposal, please call Student Activities.

Security Officers

All activities involving alcohol require the organization to hire law enforcement officers sanctioned by the State of Texas to work at the event. The only exception is if the event is held at a third-party establishment that is already providing security. The number of officers required is based on the nature of the event and expected attendance.

Officers may also be required for events classified as "open" (where people other than Tarleton students, faculty and staff will be in attendance). A security services agreement must be submitted with the activity permit and activity proposal or formal proposal for the activity to be considered for approval. Based on information provided in the activity or formal proposal, the Director of Student Activities will determine whether or not officers will be required. Based on information provided in the activity or formal proposal, the Director of Student Activities will determine whether or not officers will be required.

Fundraising

Raffles and the Law

Many student organizations and other affiliated entities use raffles to raise funds for their groups. Raffles are governed by the Charitable Raffle Enabling Act. It permits "qualified organizations" to hold raffles under specific legal conditions. The following information is a summary of the most important provisions of that law:

There are four basic types of entities that qualify under the act:
1. Associations organized primarily for religious purposes that have been in existence in Texas for at least 10 years.
2. Volunteer emergency medical service organizations that do not pay members other than nominal compensation.
3. Volunteer fire departments that operate fire-fighting equipment and do not pay members more than nominal compensation.
4. Non-profit organizations that have existed for at least three preceding years during which they have had a governing body duly elected by the members and were exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, do not distribute income to members, officers, or governing body, do not devote a substantial part of their activities to attempting to influence legislation or participate in any political campaign. The statutory language regarding organizations is complex, and any organization considering holding a raffle that does not clearly fall within these areas should consult with an attorney before proceeding with a raffle.

Money cannot be offered as a prize in a raffle. The prizes themselves may have any value but the organization may not purchase any prize valued at over $25,000. Each prize must be in the possession of the organization or it must post a bond for the full amount of the prize value with the county clerk.

A qualified organization may hold only two raffles each calendar year. Tickets may not be advertised statewide or through paid advertisements.

The following information must be printed on each ticket:

- Name and address of the organization conducting raffle
- Name and phone number of an officer of the organization
- Price of the ticket
- General description of each prize to be awarded that has a value of over $10
- Date on which the prize will be awarded

Only members of the organization may sell tickets. No one may be compensated directly or indirectly for organizing or conducting a raffle or selling tickets.

Sample Ticket:
Organization Name & Address
Name of Officer, Phone # of Officer
Description of Prize (including estimated cost)
Price of Ticket
Date on which prize will be awarded

An institution of higher education shall allow the sale of tickets to a raffle by a student organization recognized by the institution at any facility of the institution, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions.

Specific questions about the raffle laws, as it applies to student organizations, should be directed to the Office of Student Activities. Remember, an activity permit is required five (5) days prior to the start of raffle ticket sales.

Bake Sales

Recognized student organizations are allowed to hold bake sales on campus. An activity permit is required for a bake sale to be approved. In addition to the typical signatures, the Director of Student Activities must sign any activity permit involving the sale of food.

Requests to sell food items other than baked goods will be handled on an individual basis.

Activity permits for bake sales must be submitted at least five (5) days prior to the event with all required signatures.

The lobby of the Humanities building, in front of the library and the lobby of the Thompson Student Center are some of the more popular places to hold bake sales. These areas are reserved on a first-come, first-serve basis. The Office of Student Activities has the right to refuse approval to prevent overcrowding of areas.

Car Wash
Many organizations sponsor car washes to raise money. Several area businesses welcome student groups to use their parking lots for car washes. Please contact the Office of Student Activities for information on businesses who allow car washes.

The office of Student Activities has a limited supply of self-foaming car wash mitts available for organizational uses. Please contact us if you are interested.

Remember, an activity permit is required five (5) days prior to the event when sponsoring a car wash.

Other Opportunities

Organizations are very clever when it comes to raising funds. Auctions, sales, concerts, mixers, and holiday events are a few examples of successful fundraising events held by student groups. If your organization has a unique idea for a new fundraiser, stop by Student Activities prior to planning the event. We will help you plan and get the event approved.

Contracts

Are there times when student organizations need a contract? You bet! Contracts are a binding agreement between two parties in which goods or services are being exchanged. Organizations often hire a band or reserve a facility for an event. Contracts are useful in clarifying details about the event. What do you need to know?

Here are some tips:

- Contracts should state who, what, when, where, why, and how much.
- It is important to get your agreement in writing and signed by both parties involved. If there is a problem, courts will generally look at a written contract signed by both parties as a final written expression of the parties.
- Do not sign a contract that you can't fulfill. Appropriate changes need to be made because you're held liable for what you sign.
- Any changes made to a contract must be initialed and dated by both parties.
- It is important not to publicize an activity prior to both parties signing the contract. If an agreement can't be reached, you've misinformed your participants and wasted money.
- If you need help understanding or writing a contract, come by the Office of Student Activities for assistance.
