

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL & FINE ARTS

Dr. Dean Minix, Dean

Davis Hall, Room 111
(254) 968-9141

The College of Liberal and Fine Arts has two missions: first, to provide the courses in the humanities, social sciences, and arts that comprise part of the core curriculum required of all University students; and second, to provide major fields of study in the above areas and in criminal justice and social work.

Degree programs available in the College of Liberal and Fine Arts provide the base required for professional and related fields. They also include specialized programs that are professionally oriented and lead to careers in such fields as teaching, criminal justice, social work, and the performing arts. The College of Liberal and Fine Arts is organized into five departments:

- I. Communications Studies
- II. English and Languages, including Foreign Languages.
- III. Fine Arts, including Music, Art and, Theatre.
- IV. Social Sciences, including History, Political Science, Geography, and Philosophy.
- V. Social Work, Sociology, and Criminal Justice.

The College also offers bachelor of science and master of science degrees in Liberal Studies.

Department of Communication Studies

Dr. Charles Howard, Head

Davis Hall Room 411
(254) 968-9149

Associate Professors: Howard
Assistant Professors: Milford, Pauff
Instructors: Holley, Horton, Malone

The Department of Communication Studies offers a bachelor of arts degree in Communications, a bachelor of science degree in Communications (with or without certification). The department also offers a minor communications. Recommendations concerning a student's minor and course requirements are made to the department head by academic advisors.

Additional Information for the BS in Communications with Certification:

1. No substitutions are allowed for any COMS course listed on certification plan.
 - a. No Tarleton COMS course may substitute for another Tarleton COMS course.
 - b. A transfer course must be a direct translation for a COMS course listed on the certification plan.
2. For admission to the teacher certification program, each certification candidate must pass a public speaking competency exercise upon completion of COMS 101, 102, or 301, but no later than the first semester of the junior year.
 - a. The presentation will be a 7-10 minute persuasive speech evaluated by three Communications faculty members.
 - b. Student must pass the presentation with a combined score of 80 or better.
 - i. If a student fails to complete the presentation with a score of 80 or better, he/she may request to repeat the presentation within the same semester.
 - ii. After one semester, any student wishing to repeat the public speaking requirement must make an alternative presentation.
 - c. The presentation will be judged for a variety of communication skills including organization, appropriate style of delivery for subject matter, ability to communicate concepts to an audience clearly, articulation, and diction.
3. Before being allowed to take the TExES, each candidate must pass the departmental "mock" TExES examination in partial fulfillment of requirements for COMS 485.
 - a. Each student will take a mock exam based on the format for the TExES.
 - b. Students are required to pass each section of the mock exam with a grade of 80 percent or better before taking TExES.
 - c. A student who fails a section of the mock exam may retake just the failed section within the same semester.
 - d. A student who does not successfully pass all parts of the mock exam within the semester of the initial exam must retake the entire mock examination.
4. Students seeking certification must meet with the COMS certification representative at least once a semester.
5. The departmental certification representative will review specific COMS requirements with each student. Candidates for certification will then be required to sign an acknowledgment form.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR BACHELOR OF MUSIC – ALL-LEVEL CERTIFICATION

1. Students in the Bachelor of Music with teacher certification program must be enrolled in an appropriate ensemble throughout the baccalaureate program for a minimum of seven semesters. The appropriate ensemble will be determined by the student's academic advisor and by the Director of Bands or Director of Choirs. Due to constraints imposed on the University by the State of Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board regarding the number of hours allowed in the degree (no more than 139 hours in any degree), only three hours of ensemble credit may be counted towards graduation.
2. Typically, four and one-half years are required for completion of the Bachelor of Music with teacher certification degree.

TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM

Formal application to the Teacher Education Program shall be made at the completion of the following:

1. 60 hours with a C average (2.6 GPA); developmental course hours do not count.
2. MUSC 147, 148, 247, 248, 8 hours of applied principal instrument with an average grade not lower than C (2.6); and acceptance into music program.
3. 12 hours English with a grade of C or better and MATH 107 or 108.

STUDENT TEACHING

In addition to education requirements, the following music requirements must be completed prior to application for student teaching.

1. Piano Proficiency Examination
2. Sight Singing Proficiency Examination
3. Proficiency Examinations on Principal Instrument or Voice
4. MUSC 311, 312, 315, and 316
5. Recital requirements.

All music students should become familiar with the Music Major Handbook and abide by the policies and procedures therein. It is distributed at the beginning of each school year and is available in the department office.
