

Announcing the Friends of the Dick Smith Library
“Dinner in the Stacks”

Presenting.... Cynthia Ann Parker
portrayed by
Helen Garrison

Saturday, April 12, 2008

Appetizers 6:30 P.M.
Dinner 7:00 P.M.

Cynthia Ann Parker was kidnapped by the Comanche Indians in 1836 when she was nine years old, and she became a member of the tribe. Twenty-three years later, Cynthia Ann was re-captured by Captain Sul Ross of the Texas Rangers, and she was returned to her white relatives. Cynthia Ann's story is dramatic, and full of happiness and sadness. She was the mother of Quanah Parker, the most powerful and famous Comanche chief of all.

Helen works with Bob Heinonen and Texas Heroes. Some of you might have attended our Spring 2006 Dinner in the Stacks when Bob portrayed Charlie Goodnight. Texas Heroes is a professional troupe of historians/actors who tell the story of Texas and American heroes and heroines in the first person. Each performer is dressed in a historically accurate costume and becomes that person. Audiences from 1st graders on up through senior citizens love listening to and watching Texas Heroes.

Come join us for an evening of fun, entertainment, and fellowship!

Members $15.00

Non-members $17.50

DEADLINE for reservations is NOON Monday April 7, 2008

So make your reservations now!

254/968-9871 or 254/968-9474