

The Friends of the Dick Smith Library present

"An Immigrant's View of Thurber"

an all new trunk show

Saturday, April 16, 2005
Dining Hall Travis Room

Appetizers 6:30 P.M.
Dinner 7:00 P.M.

Featuring Bethany Kolter

Through a young Polish woman, the audience learns about the many immigrants who peopled Thurber. Her universal experiences help to understand the decisions, joys, disappointments, fears, and hopes of all immigrants to America.

Bethany Kolter, a native of Arizona, received her BA in history from Tarleton State in 2001. She is currently serving as Curatorial Assistant at Tarleton's own W. K. Gordon Center for Industrial History of Texas, a museum and research facility.

Attendees will receive a special Keepsake!
Come join us for an evening of fun, entertainment, and fellowship!

Members $15.00
Non-members $17.50

Make your reservations now!
254/968-9871 or 254/968-9474