

Texan Orientation Online – Spring 2009

Texan Orientation Online is a web-based course that will provide you with the same type of information that a student receives while attending one of our face-to-face Texan Orientation conferences.

The amount of time to complete Texan Orientation Online will vary from student to student. You do not have to complete the course in one setting and can work on the course at your own pace. However, you will not be able to register for Spring semester until after you complete this course; therefore, you should get started as soon as possible. In order to complete this course, you will need to have access to a computer with a connection to the Internet.

If you access to a computer with a connection to the Internet, then complete the following steps:

1. Open a web browser and go to the URL <http://online.tarleton.edu/Dual/DualLoginPage.htm>. Select the Blackboard CE 6 Course Log-In hyperlink on this page.
2. Enter your User Name and Password. Information for obtaining these items is included at Blackboard Home Page. If you have problems with your User Name and/or Password contact the Registrar's Office at 254-968-9121.
3. After correctly entering your user name and password, you will be at the My Blackboard home page. In the center of this page is a box named Course List.
4. Inside the Course List box, select the hyperlink to Texan Orientation Online – Spring 2009. Selecting this link will take you to the Home Page of Texan Orientation Online.
5. On the Home Page select the hyperlink Start Here. The information presented on the screen will provide you guidance in completing Texan Orientation Online.
6. If you are not be able complete Texan Orientation Online using this process due to computer hardware/software problems, then follow the steps outlined below for people who do not have access to a computer with a connection to the Internet.
