MLA WORKS CITED FORMATTING RULES

An MLA bibliography (also called "works cited" or "literature cited") is formatted as follows:

- ❖ List only the items used in your paper on a works cited list.
See the MLA handbook for rules about listing works you read, but did not use.
- ❖ Put the bibliography at the end of the paper.
- ❖ Start the bibliography on its own page.
- ❖ Put the page number in the upper right-hand corner, half an inch from the top and flush with the right margin.
- ❖ Label the page with an appropriate title: Works Cited, Bibliography, Literature Cited, etc.
See the handbook for other possible titles and the guidelines for each.
- ❖ Do not underline the title or put it in quotation marks.
- ❖ Center the title an inch from the top of the page.
- ❖ Double space the entries.
- ❖ Begin the first line of each entry at the left margin. Indent subsequent lines five spaces or 1/2 inch. This is called a hanging indent in most word processing programs.
- ❖ List entries alphabetically based on the first letter of the first element. (e.g. by the first author's last name or by the first word in a title -- ignoring any initial A, An, and The)
- ❖ Consult the MLA handbook (Call Number PE1478.M57) for additional rules, as well as detailed rules for punctuation, abbreviations, and capitalization. The MLA Style Sheet by Dr. Abel Scribe offers a synopsis of these rules.
