How did you hear about Rio Brazos Art Exhibition?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>#1 title</th>
<th>#2 title</th>
<th>#3 title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>name of artist</td>
<td>medium</td>
<td>year executed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>price</td>
<td>size</td>
<td>medium</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Entries must be submitted by Wednesday, March 9, 2016
19th Annual Juried Show & Sale
April 17 - May 1, 2016

19th Annual Rio Brazos Art Exhibition

Call for Entries
Deadline: March 9, 2016

The Dora Lee Langdon Cultural and Education Center is nestled one block off Granbury’s historic square in the Brazos River Valley and serves as a focal point for fine arts in the Lake Granbury area. The Langdon Center serves as the cultural and educational hub of the downtown area in cooperation with the City of Granbury and Tarleton State University.

The Granbury Arts Alliance (GAA), a non-profit fine arts organization, is the major sponsor of the Rio Brazos Art Exhibition. The goal of the GAA is to enrich and enhance the artistic environment of Granbury and make cultural activities accessible to all citizens. The GAA exists to unite all the artistic groups of Granbury under one umbrella to share resources and experience, increase awareness of the arts, and support one another.

The main campus of Tarleton State University is located 31 miles southwest of Granbury in Stephenville. Founded in 1899 as a private, liberal arts college, Tarleton is now one of the state’s fastest growing institutions with an enrollment exceeding 12,000 and serves as the educational and cultural flagship of the Cross Timbers Region.

2016 Rio Brazos Art Exhibition Juror

Awards
Accepted artwork will be selected at the discretion of the juror. Works are grounded according to the type of media received. Approximately $5,000 in cash and merchandise awards will be given.