

Outstanding Junior Faculty Award

The Outstanding Junior Faculty Award is given in recognition of demonstrated excellence in teaching, scholarly or creative activities, and service by a faculty member beginning an academic career. The award is given on the basis of cumulative achievement since joining the faculty at Tarleton.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Full-time faculty in a junior status who have been:
- At Tarleton for no more than five years
- In faculty role no more than seven years
- Outstanding achievement in teaching, research/creative endeavor, and service at the junior faculty level.

2016-2017 Dr. Trinette Jones

2015-2016 Dr. Christopher Gearhart