

General Education and Academic Assessment Committee Minutes

February 9, 2017, 3 pm to 5 pm, O.A. Grant 394N

- The committee reviewed the status on the follow-up reviews and the need for completing them in preparation for budget hearings.
- The committee holistically discussed the current assessment climate at Tarleton. In this discussion, the group sought to identify areas of concern where the committee could most effectively intervene and opportunities for growth where the committee could support a robust culture of assessment.
- The committee reviewed the assessment calendar for the completion of the 2016-2017 assessment year. The committee then previewed the assessment calendar for the 2017-2018 year.
- The Committee discussed Tarleton's application process for the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification and discussed the role of committee in supporting this application
- The Committee discussed the SACSCOC reaffirmation process. As part of this discussion, the committee discussed its role in preparing the university for the process.