TTM

Position

Member (January 2019-August

2019) Self-Reflection

As a Tarleton Transition Mentor, I was able to attend Orientations and Duck Camps throughout the time that I served. In Duck Camp, I served preparing Texans for the transition from high school to college, by connecting them with other future Texans and introducing the core values of Tarleton. In orientations, I was able to help students prepare for their first semester at Tarleton by signing up for classes, housing and other offices.

Total Approved Service Hours: 200

Texan Rep

Position

Member (09/04/2017-Present)

Self-Reflection

Texan Reps show the heart of Tarleton to future Texans. I have given several tours through the semesters and have participated in Texan Tours throughout my time as a Texan Rep.

Conferences

MLK Leadership Conference

This conference was created in an effort to help students on campus expand their leadership skills. I did learn a lot about how to encourage and help new leaders and about my personality and how it relates to my leadership skills. In this conference, I was able to connect more with the T.A.B. Leadership team to create a bond and share our leadership styles with one another to grow as an effective team.

APCA Regional

I benefitted from this conference due to the fact it grew my connections within the programming field and developing my leadership and professional skills. I did learn new ideas to bring back to campus and I also found several acts which were brought to campus. I made several connections with the individuals that were showcased and to maintain those I will show future T.A.B. leadership members the acts that I thought were beneficial to campus.

Leaders 4 Diversity Conference

This conference is an opportunity to show participants that people can come together and discuss their differences peacefully.

Community Service

Erath County Humane Society

After being approved for volunteer work, I was able to start coming to the shelter to help assist with the animals that are waiting patiently to go to their forever homes. An average volunteer day involved feeding, cleaning out kennels and cages, checking the status of the animals to make sure they were healthy and helping with the overall upkeep of the shelter.

Self-Reflection

Being able to help out at the shelter provided a sense of accomplishment in my life. I was able to see how the shelter runs and how much they truly love the animals there. Seeing the look on someone's face when they lock eyes on their forever friend is beautiful and it is something that I will hold with me the rest of my life.

Hours: 12.5

Senior Center Valentine's Dance

The senior center has a Valentine's Dance every year and every year different organizations take part in helping the dance run smoothly. A lot of the event revolves around dancing with the senior citizens and just making sure they remain happy.

Self-Reflection

This opportunity allowed me to have meaningful conversations with the older generation that I would otherwise not be able to have. Watching them come to life on the dance floor was mesmerizing.

Employment

Student Involvement

One of the offices on campus that plays a huge role in the upbringing of students throughout their years at Tarleton.

Self-Reflection

The main duty that was assigned to me was manning the main line for the campus. I did all the duties of a phone operator while dealing with the public and assisting in the office as needed.

Date: 1/14/19-7/31/20

Lectures

Duff Goldman

A part of the Speaker Symposium Series was Duff Goldman, a Food Network star, who came to speak to the campus community.

Self-Reflection

The lecture offered the opportunity to see a real celebrity speak in small town USA. It inspired me to go home and bake a cake.

Date: 3/3/20
