LandCare MANAGEMENT TRAINEE PROGRAM

Experience something bigger.

The Management Trainee (MT) Program aims to cultivate the next generation of LandCare leaders by providing recent college graduates with a structured development opportunity that expedites their readiness for a management role.

MANAGEMENT TRAINEE PROGRAM

Similar to that of an accelerated grad school program, the one-year program will help build your professional knowledge and hands-on training to establish a strong growth path with LandCare.

One-year program

Develop leadership & communication skills

Connect with LandCare leaders

Engage with project-based team & individual assignments

Julissa, LandCare Culver City
Production Manager & MT Program Member

Julissa's Story...

Julissa previously completed a college internship with LandCare and has since pursued a career as a Production Manager. She was selected for the MT Program due to her drive and commitment to enhancing her skills. Upon completing the program, she will be equipped with the necessary tools for future professional development at LandCare.

"It's uplifting to connect with peers nationwide who aspire to be leaders at LandCare and to have guidance from mentors every step of the way."

The program is led by...

Skyler Westergard
Learning & Development Specialist

Skyler's passion for developing promising leaders goes beyond just a personal mission -- he was a professor of landscaping and horticulture at BYU Idaho before creating the LandCare MT Program. Skyler uses his expertise to guide and connect program members with LandCare leaders to assist their advancement of skills and knowledge through mentorship and hands-on learning.

Candidates are selected based on the following criteria:

- Recent college graduate
- New to LandCare and the green industry
- Desire to ascend into a leadership position
- Inquisitive and motivated to learn
