

"When it comes to human dignity,
we cannot make compromises."

ANGELA MERKEL

Student Counseling Services
(254) 968-9044
Phone is answered 24/7
First Floor of Traditions North
Studentcounselingservices@tarleton.edu

Survivor Advocacy

PROVIDING CONFIDENTIAL
SUPPORT AND RESOURCES FOR SURVIVORS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT,
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, STALKING
& HARASSMENT

WWW.TARLETON.EDU/COUNSELING

Providing on-campus resources & support for survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking & harassment.

WHAT DOES A SURVIVOR ADVOCATE DO?

- Provide confidential support to survivors
- Help with immediate safety needs and safety planning
- Explain reporting options, including reports to the University (Title IX) or law enforcement
- Provide support through Title IX and / or criminal processes if a survivor chooses to pursue them
- Explain medical options; help survivors access medical care
- Help connect with community resources such as Cross Timbers Family Services
- Assist with on-campus accommodations
- Provide psychoeducation on trauma
- Help survivors prepare for discussions with loved ones

WHO DO WE SERVE?

Survivors

- Any student who has dealt with sexual assault, domestic violence, harassment, and / or stalking
- It doesn't matter when the harm occurred - sometimes students struggle with something that happened before arriving at Tarleton

Faculty / Staff Consultations

- We can visit about students of concern, how to support survivors, etc
- We can provide information, presentations, materials, etc. for your classes

WHY DO WE SERVE

- Trauma disrupts every facet of a person's life
- It can be challenging to concentrate on academics when wrestling with the aftermath of violence
- We want to keep our survivors in school, working toward their dream of an education
- Violence is wrong. Period. Survivors deserve support with getting their lives back on track and healing from harm. We can help with that process

