

BRITTANY SUTTON

bsutton@tarleton.edu
254-968-1822

T-Box 0665
Stephenville, TX 76401

EDUCATION

MCJ	Tarleton State University Master of Criminal Justice	May 2022
BA	Texas A&M University Bachelor of Arts in Political Science	December 2015
CERT	Tarrant County College Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Paralegal Studies	December 2020

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Tarleton State University, Stephenville, TX August 2022 - Present
Instructor, Department of Criminal Justice

- Courses taught:
 - Introduction to Criminal Justice (face-to-face and online, asynch.)
Introduce students to the history and development of the modern criminal justice system and its components such as law enforcement, courts, and corrections.
 - Correctional Systems and Practices (face-to-face)
Introduction to the system of corrections within the American criminal justice system.
 - Court Systems and Practices (online, asynch.)
Introduction to the role of the judiciary within the American criminal justice system.
 - Fundamentals of Criminal Law (online, asynch.)
Introduction to the body of law that relates to crime and its connection with the American criminal justice system.
- Support between 20-70 students in each course taught
- Develop syllabi according to Department, University, and State standards
- Establish and continuously revise lesson plans throughout the semester
- Maintain consistent communication with students, department head, and others
- Develop formative and summative assessments in each course
- Grade assignments as required, providing constructive feedback to students
- Adapt course curriculum to meet semester length, including 8 week semester

Tarleton State University, Stephenville, TX January 2022 – July 2022
Academic Career Pathways Lecturer, Department of Criminal Justice

- Courses taught:
 - Introduction to Criminal Justice (face-to-face and online, asynch.)
Introduce students to the history and development of the modern criminal justice system and its components such as law enforcement, courts, and corrections.
 - Fundamentals of Criminal Law (online, asynch.)
Introduction to the body of law that relates to crime and its connection with the American criminal justice system.
 - Correctional Systems and Practices (face-to-face and online, asynch.)
Introduction to the system of corrections within the American criminal justice system.
- Developed syllabi according to Department, University, and State standards
- Established and continuously revised lesson plans throughout the semester
- Maintained consistent communication with students, department head, and others
- Developed formative and summative assessments in each course
- Graded assignments as required, providing constructive feedback to students

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Effective Online Teaching Practices

Association of College and University Educators (ACUE), Fall 2022-Spring 2023

Description: Provides effective teaching practices for online student instruction.

Professional Development Teaching Workshop

Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences and Sage Publishing, March 2023

Certificate of Completion obtained.

Certified Paralegal, NALA - The Paralegal Association, effective January 2021

Description: Successful completion of the Certified Paralegal (CP) examination.

PRESENTATIONS

Criminal Justice and Justice Mini-Conference

Mass Incarceration Panel

Tarleton State University, April 11, 2023

GRANTS

Affordable Course Redesign Grant

Tarleton State University, Spring 2023

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, 2022 - Present

Member

National Association of Legal Assistants, 2021 - Present
Member, Certified Paralegal

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Faculty Advisor

Criminal Justice Society
Student Organization, Tarleton State University

Curriculum Sub-Committee

Member
Department of Criminal Justice, Tarleton State University