New Course

Agricultural and Consumer Sciences (AGCS)
ACOM 4350: Electronic Field Production for Agricultural Communications

Curriculum currently stresses journalism and writing skills, but offers limited exposure to video production. By adding this course, the students will be more marketable, skilled and prepared to enter the diverse field of Agricultural Communication.

New Course

Agricultural and Consumer Sciences (AGCS)
AGEC 3359: Personal & Family Financial Management I

Replaces FACS 3333 which is deleted due to number conflict with existing AGEC 3333 - Agricultural Prices and to organize subject matter to support the Personal and Small Business Financial Planning Concentration.

C2708
Fall 2014

---

New Course

Agricultural and Consumer Sciences (AGCS)
AGEC 3360: Personal & Family Financial Management II

Historically, FACS 333 (now AGEC 3359/FACS 3359) allowed only superficial coverage of the above topics. This course will support the Personal and Small Business Financial Planning Concentration.

C2709
Fall 2014

New Course

Agricultural and Consumer Sciences (AGCS)
AGSD 1110: Introduction to Agricultural Services & Development

This 1-hour course will be taught concurrently with AGSD 100 - Transition to University Studies. The department has historically taught a seminar course (AGSD 101) that included introductory professional topics along with transition topics. This course will complete the freshman experience for our teacher education and extension students that is not being taught in the AGSD 100 course.
