By signing this form, you acknowledge the following:

- The school from which a student earns their degree should issue the Form I-20, maintain the student's record, and make any updates to that record as required by federal regulations.
- If you are graduating from another institution, Tarleton State University will not issue a Form I-20.
- You must follow any procedures set forth by the school that issues your Form I-20 to meet your reporting requirements and to demonstrate that you are maintaining your F-1 status throughout the duration of your program
- It is your responsibility to continue to maintain status throughout your academic program.
- If you apply for practical training, you will do so through the degree granting institute.
- If you decide to graduate from Tarleton instead, you must alert DSOs at both institutions in advance.
- TAMU System Policy requires all F-1 students to have health insurance. You will automatically be enrolled in a health insurance plan. If you have your own health insurance, you may request a waiver. Your health insurance must meet the requirements set by the TAMU System for your waiver to be approved.
