Biographical Note

Clyde Henley Wells was born on June 22, 1916 in Stephenville, Texas to Willie Monroe and Delula Belle (Henley) Wells. He grew up in Stephenville and graduated from Stephenville High School in 1935. In 1936 he graduated from John Tarleton Agricultural College (now Tarleton State University) in Stephenville. He also graduated from Texas A&M University in 1938. Wells taught agriculture at John Tarleton Agricultural College in the 1943, and taught at Texas Christian University in the 1960s.

Wells became the general manager of Black Ranch in Hood County, Texas in the 1950s. Governor Price Daniel appointed Wells as a member of the Texas A&M Board of Regents in 1961. He remained a member of the board through 1985. In 1967 Wells was named Man of the Year in Texas Agriculture. He was awarded distinguished alumnus at Tarleton State University in 1971. The Clyde H. Wells Fine Arts Center at Tarleton State University was dedicated in his honor in 1980. In 1983 he was honored by House Concurrent Resolution 63 by the 68th Legislature of the State of Texas.

Other positions Wells held include chairman of the Council of Governing Boards of Texas Colleges and Universities; director for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, and the Texas A&M Research Foundation; and president of the Sterling C. Evans Library Development Council of Texas A&M University. He served with Soil Conservation Service in Hood County, Texas. Civic and religious organization he belonged to include First United Methodist Church of Granbury, Stephenville Masonic Lodge No. 267, Scottish Rite, the Dallas Petroleum Club, and Ridglea County Club in Fort Worth, Texas.

Wells married Marie White in 1940, and they had one daughter Lana Wells Collier. Wells died on January 29, 1987 at the Stephenville General Hospital. He was interred in the in West End Cemetery in Stephenville, Texas.

Marie White Wells was born on December 26, 1913 in Weatherford, Texas to Charles A. and Roberta Graham White. She graduated from Weatherford College and John Tarleton Agricultural College (now Tarleton State University) where she earned a degree in education. After college she taught grades one through six in a small schoolhouse between Tin Top and Thorp Springs, Texas. She met Clyde Wells during that time.

Marie belonged to the Woman's Wednesday Club for 50 years and was also a member of the Bridge Club. She was a member of the Board of Directors of the Tarleton State University Foundation. Along with her family, she attended the Granbury First United Methodist Church in Granbury, Texas.

Marie died on January 9, 2008 in Dallas, Texas. She was interred in West End Cemetery in Stephenville, Texas.

Lana Wells was born in Stephenville, Texas on August 13, 1942 to Clyde and Marie Wells. She graduated from Granbury High School in Granbury, Texas and attended Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas and Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas. She earned degrees in education and counseling. Wells taught second grade in Bryan, Texas for three years and was a school counselor in Garland and Dallas, Texas.

Lana married Benjamin Raye Collier on November 11, 1999. She died on July 15, 2017 and was interred at West End Cemetery in Stephenville, Texas.
