Rule Statement

Tarleton State University (Tarleton) is committed to providing a safe environment for students, employees and visitors. In an effort to attain a safe environment, Tarleton shall conduct criminal history record information (background) checks on applicants hired or employees transferred into positions designated as security sensitive in accordance with System Regulations 33.99.01, Employment Practices, and 33.99.14, Criminal History Record Information-Employees and Applicants, and Tarleton Standard Administrative Procedure (SAP) 33.99.01.T0.01, Hiring Faculty and Non-faculty.

Reason for Rule

As per System Regulation 33.99.14, each system member shall publish a rule to be followed in conducting background investigations of employees and applicants.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1. GENERAL

1.1 All Tarleton positions, including temporary and student positions, are deemed security sensitive and are subject to criminal record background checks in accordance with System Regulation 33.99.14.

1.2 The CEO delegates authority to authorize hire actions and/or approve written reports as allowed by System Regulation 33.99.14 to the appropriate divisional vice president.

2. PRE-EMPLOYMENT CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECKS

2.1 All finalists for positions shall be subject to an acceptable criminal history background check. This includes any applicant as defined by System Regulation 33.99.14. Any applicant declining to consent to a criminal history background check will be removed from further consideration for the position.
2.2 Any offers or hiring action that may occur prior to the completion of the criminal history background check shall be conditional and contingent on an acceptable criminal background check.

2.3 When performed by the Employee Services Department, criminal history background checks on applicants for employment with Tarleton shall be run from;

2.3.1 the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Crime Records-Secure Site,

2.3.2 the DPS Crime Records-Public Site, or any other publicly available local, state, or federal source, and/or

2.3.3 a third-party vendor (in accordance with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act).

3. POST-EMPLOYMENT CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECKS

3.1 Current employees being considered as a candidate for promotion, transfer or reclassification that requires a position change shall be subject to a criminal history background check.

3.2 Any employee declining to consent to a criminal history background check during a promotional or transfer process will be removed from further consideration for the position. If an employee’s position is being reclassified and the employee declines to consent to the background check, the employee may be terminated.

3.3 Any offers or hiring action that may occur prior to the completion of the criminal background check shall be conditional and contingent on an acceptable criminal background check.

3.4 Criminal history background checks on current Tarleton employees shall be run from the DPS Crime Records-Public Site or any other publicly available local, state, or federal source if the check is performed by a third-party vendor.

4. PROCESS FOR OBTAINING AND EVALUATION CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION

4.1 The Employee Services Department is responsible for obtaining criminal history records.

4.2 If the criminal history check produces a criminal record, then Employee Services Department may contact a University Police Department representative to further investigate, verify the record and/or obtain any necessary additional information needed for analyzing the record.

4.3 The record analysis and subsequent action will follow the guidelines as outlined in System Regulation 33.99.14 and a final disposition of the analysis will be documented and retained in the personnel file. The criminal record will be destroyed in accordance with System Regulation 33.99.14.
4.4 Every applicant and employee will have, as permitted by law, the opportunity to request, receive, review and correct information about that individual collected by, or on behalf of Tarleton using authorization given as a part of the employment application.
