

Texan Rep – Fort Worth Application

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Must be a full-time registered student at Tarleton State University
2. To be interviewed, you must have a current GPA of at least 2.25*, both institutional and overall (if this is your first semester at Tarleton, your GPA will not hinder your ability to interview).
3. An institutional and overall GPA of 2.25 must be maintained to be a Texan Rep.
4. All selected Texan Reps are expected to complete all required training.

Texan Reps are challenged with sharing their passion for Tarleton with prospective students and exemplifying servant leadership on Campus and in the community. They must consistently build meaningful and sincere connections with prospective students including a diverse population of freshman, transfer, and international students and their families. Those selected to be Texan Reps are required to maintain a positive, enthusiastic attitude and represent Tarleton State University and the Office of School Relations in a positive manner. Selected applicants are expected to serve in capacities that may include, but are not limited to: Open Houses, Weekly Information Sessions, Tour Guide Duties, and Community Events.
